PIONEER OF 1853 DIES AT OAKLAND

Mrs. Mary Hall Smith, 82, mother of Mrs. C. L. Chenoweth, Oakland, and Mrs. G. B. Tillinghast, Los Angeles, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chenoweth, late last night after a long illness. She was born in Illinois, June 7, 1848, and with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Langley Hall, crossed the plains in 1853. After spending the winter of '53 and '54 in the Willamette valley, they moved to Douglas county and settled in what is known as English settlement, east of Oakland. She was married to J. B. Smith, who conducted the first hardware store in Old Oakland, December 1, 1868. Her husband passed away several years ago. Besides her two daughters, she is survived by two granddaughters, Miss Ruth Chenoweth, Oakland, and Mrs. E. N. Crosby, and one great granddaughter, Mary Alice Crosby, of Los Angeles. Also one sister, Mrs. G. A. Taylor, Portland, and one brother, Chas. M. Hall, Oakland. Mrs. Smith had never been separated from her daughter, Mrs. Chenoweth, until death. Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the home in Oakland. Arrangements are in care of H. C. Stearns of the Douglas Funeral Home.
